[XXIIᵈ Year.] THURSDAY, October 2, 1766. [N°. 1099.]

Tranſlation from a Swediſh Author.

ENGLAND without Diſpute is the Queen of Iſles, the Empire and Arſenal of Neptune. She is at the ſame Time the Peru of Europe, the Kingdom of Bacchus, the School of Epicurus, the Academy of Venus, the Country of Mars, the Abode of Minerva, the Support of Holland, the Scourge of France, the Purgatory of Partiſans of Oppoſition, and the Paradiſe of thoſe of Liberty. The Women are handſome, but their Beauty is attended with ſomething very inſipid. Bravery there, is, as it were, natural to the Men, but carried to an Exceſs that approaches to Savageneſs. Wit and Judgment reign there, and perhaps more than in any other Country whatever; but they produce a certain Air of Pride, which conſiderably diminiſhes their Merit. 'Tis there, one may ſay, that Fortune diſtributes her Favours abundantly; but theſe Iſlanders are ignorant of the Uſe they ought to make of them to Strangers, as the Courtiers and their Taſte are the only Objects of their Liberality. Their Language is an odd Mixture of almoſt all the Tongues of Europe; but with this Advantage, that it expreſſes itſelf the beſt of all of them: In ſhort, 'tis a Nation, where nothing is wanting to its Happineſs, but to know how to enjoy it. Her natural Reſtleſſneſs, and extreme Jealouſy for Liberty and Properſy, have often plunged her into Civil Wars, which have laid her within ſix Inches of her Deſtruction.

The three Journies I made there having let me into their Manners, I venture to aſſert that it is the moſt delightful Country in the World for young Gentlemen to be amuſed in, provided they are Maſters of the Language, and able to ſupport the Expence:——And if the high Road to Hell be ſown with Delights and Pleaſures, you muſt neceſſarily paſs thro' England to it.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

ST. JAMES's, July 30.

THE King has been pleaſed to grant unto the Right Honourable WILLIAM PITT, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, the Dignities of a Viſcount and Earl of the Kingdom of Great-Britain, by the Name, Stile and Title, of Viſcount Pitt of Burton Pynſent, in the County of Somerſet, and Earl of Chatham in the County of Kent.

LONDON.

Auguſt 2. The Title of Earl of Chatham lately conferred on the great Commoner, was firſt granted to John Duke of Argyle, by her late Majeſty Queen Anne, in 1706, the Year before the Union.

By Mr. Pitt's being created Earl of Chatham, his Seat in the Houſe of Commons becomes vacant for the City of Bath. But Mr. De Grey, who is Member of New-port in Cornwall, needs not be re-elected on his being promoted to the Office of Attorney General.

We hear Baron Bothmar, Miniſter from Denmark, will accompany her Royal Highneſs Princeſs Carolina Matilda on her Voyage to Copenhagen, having been appointed by his Court Vice-Chamberlain to her intended Majeſty, and that another Miniſter from Denmark is ſoon expected here.

It is ſaid, that the late great Commoner has declared, that the whole of his Conduct had been for the Service of his Country. He could not cloſe the Scene of his Actions with more Propriety than accepting of a Peerage, which he hoped would be a Means of quieting the People, for if he had continued in the Houſe of Commons, they would have been in continual Expectation of his ſerving them, which now they will never think of.

It is ſaid a Treaty of Marriage will ſoon take Place between Lord Viſcount Pynſent, (Mr. Pitt's Son) and the third Daughter of John Earl of Bute.

By Letters from Berlin we learn, that upon Prince Ferdinand's quitting the Pruſſian Service, General Beckwith begged Leave to reſign; and we can aſſure the Public, that that Gentleman does not mean to enter the French Service any more than his great and reverend General Prince Ferdinand.

Though the Expectation of the Public is forgone, yet we are aſſured that a Plan has been concerted, by which the Earl of Chatham will become as popular as the late William Pitt.

July 3. By Letters from different Counties in the Weſt of England, we are informed, that there are the fineſt Crops of Hay and Corn on the Ground ever known in the Memory of Man.

July 8. An Account of the Number of Men of War built at Genoa, for the Service of France, ſince the laſt Treaty of Verſailles, has been received here, and is ſaid to be as follows: Four Ships of the Line, navigated to Toulon by Genoeſe Sailors, without Guns; Two Sixty-four, a Frigate, and Two Bombs, brought home by Frenchmen, without Guns; Three Seventies, a Sixty, and Four Frigates at Rochfort; beſides ſeveral Tranſports at the above, laden with Timber for the Marine Arſenals.

July 12. The laſt Advices from Conſtantinople mention, that all the Turkiſh Garriſons on the Frontiers of the Black Sea, were doubling with extraordinary Diligence.

July 15. It is reported Hoſtages will be immediately demanded of the Court of Spain, for the Payment of the Manilla Ranſom.

July 17. It is ſaid that neither the Earl of Bute, nor the Duke of Bedford, will accept of any Poſt, but that they are to have the Recommendation of certain Places of Honour and Profit; but not to interfere in any Places of Power.

The Stock-jobbing News is, that the King of Pruſſia demands Three Millions of Money, and Half of our Conqueſts in America.

An Order is ſaid to be ſent over to Ireland, for the ſeveral Forts and Caſtles in that Kingdom to be thoroughly repaired.

July 22. Accounts from France aſſure us, that the French in general ſeem deſirous of a Renewal of War with us, but that the Sentiments of their King are averſe to Hoſtility.

We are credibly informed that an illuſtrious Perſonage now acts the Part that her deceaſed Brother did laſt Summer, by becoming a Mediatrix between the King and his old Whig Miniſters. That her late Viſit to Stowe, was with a View to have them recalled, and to ſettle the Terms of their Acceptance with Lord Temple, and, if poſſible, to prevail on him to come in along with them. Doubtleſs, in Negotiations of this Kind, her Sex gives her ſuperior Advantages to any her Brother could enjoy; for Female Influence generally proves as irreſiſtible in Political, as in Love Affairs; Witneſs the univerſal Prevalence of it at preſent both at home and abroad.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, July 22.

"Monday his Majeſty's Ships Princeſs Louiſa, and Leoſtoff arrived at Antigua, in five Weeks and one Day. The Princeſs Louiſa is extremely leaky.

"The Princeſs Louiſa was Admiral Tyrell's Ship, but the Admiral died on board at Sea, nine Days after the Ship left Antigua, being the 27th of June, and by his own Deſire, was flung overboard on the 28th, after the uſual Ceremony.

"Admiral Tyrell died through the Severity of repeated apoplectic Fitt.

"Our Marine here is in exceeding good Order, and our Artificers conſtantly employed in keeping them ſo, leſt we ſhould be unexpectedly called upon by our old Antagoniſts."

July 24. Our Letters from Germany contradict the Report of Prince Ferdinand's having entered into the Service of France; tho' it is beyond Doubt, that, were he ſo diſpoſed, he might command his own Terms either from that Court, or the Emperor of Germany. Theſe Letters add, that it is ſuppoſed he intends to lead a retired Life at his Country Seat in the Dutchy of Brunſwick.

July 29. It is ſaid that a Bill will be brought into Parliament the next Seſſion, appointing Elections for Members of Parliament to be by Ballot; which, it is thought, will almoſt totally prevent all future Corruption on ſuch Occaſions; as it will be impoſſible to know on which Side an Elector Votes, and conſequently render Candidates extremely cautious whom they truſt with a Bribe.

Mr. Townſend, has at laſt, (by the Interceſſion of a Noble Duke, who would not be in Office without him) been prevailed on to accept the Chancellorſhip of the Exchequer.

The Change in the Miniſtry here, as ſoon as it is ſettled, will be productive of many and great Alterations in the Civil Adminiſtration of Government in Ireland.

At a late Conference, a noble Lawyer, [Lord Cambden] took the Liberty of declaring his Sentiments very freely. Among other Things, he declared, that the Adminiſtration muſt be changed, or all would ſoon be in Confuſion. That the Advices of the ſecret Tranſactions of foreign Courts, the Contempt ſhewn to our Councils, and Demands by foreign Powers; the Diſſatisfaction ſhewn by almoſt all Ranks at Home; and the Diſtreſſes and almoſt deſperate Situation of our Poor; all concurred to make ſuch a Change abſolutely neceſſary without Delay: And that we did not want a Coalition of Parties in the Adminiſtration, but a Coalition of Abilities.

Orders have been ſent down this Week to Portſmouth, to get ready for Sea ſuch Ships as are in the Harbour.

July 31. The reſpectful Manner in which the Americans appear to receive the News of the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, does them very great Honour, and effectually juſtifies the Meaſure. The Nation will receive Advantage from it; the Miniſtry ſome Credit; and great Glory will accrue to thoſe who in ſo diſtinguiſhed a Manner took the Lead in accompliſhing it. The Framers of that Tax, and Oppoſers of its Abolition, muſt now become doubly Odious, both as Stateſmen and Patriots, or rather in their Pretenſions to either Character, which can never more be allowed them; for as it is Diſgraceful to take wrong Meaſures, it muſt be infamous to aim at ſupporting them, when they are diſcovered to be wrong.

A very extraordinary Letter to the Mayor of Limerick, for which 300 l. was offer'd to diſcover the Author.

Mr. Mayor

Sir It is with great indignation and contempt we reflect on the paſt and preſent maſſacre of many of the Lives of our poor Roman Catholicks who are ſuffering for religion and liberty ſake, but ye herick dogs the day will ſoon come that we will make your potent bloods go like a flood down your ſtreets ye heretick wolves we will ſoon ſhake of your yoke like true born ſons of hibernia and retatiate all grievances on your own heads you ſir with the corporation of Limerick thought to oppreſs the Roman catholick tradſmen of the City by a grant of parliament charter but the time will ſoon come when we will drive your parliament to hell, and paint the walls inſide with the blood of its herotick members we are both able and willing to gain our liberty and ſettle ourſelves free Maſters of our own ſoile and give you as futle blow as our anceſtors gave the Dains and be well aſſured we will remember our love to you and the reſt of the clan and your member of the houſe Charles Smith by name for his vigilance in charters for the heretick dogs the tradſmen of Limerick, that little prt animal Sir Henry Haſton ſhall pay for his vigilance in hunting the whit boys ſo called we will give his body to our dogs for food and as a juſt reward for his merit his ſoul to the devil to conclude ſir a ſpeedy deſtruction to both king and government as by law eſtabliſt which is the ſincere wiſh of him who is and ever ſhall remain your profeſt enemy.

BRIDGETOWN (in BARBADOS) August 30.

By Thomas Workman, Esq; who arrived here the 26th Inst. in a Flag of Truce from Martinico, we have the following melancholy Account of a most dreadful Hurricane that happened there the 13th and 14th Instant: Mr. Workman arrived at Fort Royal on the 16th in the Evening, and was informed, that on the 13th Instant a violent Gale of Wind from W. In Consequence of which, an Ordinance was published, giving Liberty to English Vessels to import Bread and Flour, paying a Duty of only One per Cent to the French King, and other Provisions, agreeable to their former Ordinances.
